

This dates from the end of 14th century. Around the church, there are several tombs covered with stone slabs.